

COLLEGE OF MIDWIVES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

POLICY ON TITLES

The title “midwife” is reserved under Section 3 of the Midwives Regulation. An approved variation of this title will be “Registered Midwife”. An approved abbreviation for this variation will be “R.M.”.

The reserved title in French is translated as “sage-femme”. The approved French variation will be “sage-femme autorisée”, and the approved abbreviation will be “s.f.a.”.

An aboriginal midwife practising aboriginal midwifery as described in the Midwives Regulation may use the title “aboriginal midwife”. The approved French variation will be “sage-femme autochtone”.

The use of the word “midwife”, alone or as part of another title, to represent a person not registered with the College, and use of the word “midwifery” to describe the practice of a person not registered with the College, are considered infringements of the reserved title as set out in section 3 of the Midwives Regulation.
